2. Introduction

The Department of Basic Education wishes to salute all schools and teachers who have entered the National Teaching Awards (NTA). The NTA Scheme was conceptualised and launched in 2000 and now enters its twentieth year of implementation. Through extensive consultation, the scheme has been refined, sharpened, as well as broadened in terms of its frame and categories. We therefore welcome you to the 20th edition of the NTA.

The NTA scheme is one of the ways in which the Department of Basic Education acknowledges, the extraordinary efforts made by excellent teachers, often in very difficult conditions. Such teachers provide better futures for learners, because lack of quality education is a major factor behind many social, political, economic and health challenges faced by the world today; as well as contributing to poverty, prejudice and conflict.

To mark the 20th anniversary of the NTA, DBE has expanded the Project by including the African Union (AU) and the Global Teacher Prize (GTP) criteria. In future the NTA winners will participate in the AU and GTP awards.

3. The objectives of the Ministry of Basic Education through the NTA are to:

- (a) Focus public attention on the positive aspects of Basic Education, thereby raising the public image of the teaching profession;
- (b) Recognise and promote excellence in teaching performance;
- (c) Honour dedicated creative and effective teachers and schools;
- (d) Encourage best practice in schools;
- (e) Afford South Africans the opportunity to publicly say thank you to all outstanding teams or individual teachers in schools; and

9. The Dispute Resolution Mechanism

In resolving a dispute, the following steps should be followed at cluster, district, provincial and national levels.

Step –by-step guide on what to do when dealing with disputes

First step:

Before you lodge a complaint, it is advisable to:

- Familiarise yourself with the rules governing the NTA and identify the particular rule you feel has been handled in a manner that violate your rights. Speak to your colleagues, supervisor, or another manager whom you trust;
- Identify the specific issue that you are objecting to, when the decision was made, or when you were effectively notified of the decision. This is very important for the timelines, should you decide to proceed with contesting the decision through the internal dispute resolution process; and
- If you consider that there has been an issue that violate your rights and you are unable to resolve the matter informally, you may then contest such a decision through the formal mechanism provided.

Second step

When lodging a dispute, ensure that you follow the following steps:

- (a) Send a detailed report to the chairperson of the adjudication panel quoting all relevant information such as the subject of dispute, reason/s, the date and time of the occurrence;
- (b) In your report, explain clearly the decision you wish to contest, who made the decision and when, how it violates your rights and why you believe the decision was improper or unlawful;

- (c) Make copies of any correspondence so that it would be easy to produce proof should it be necessary;
- (d) When you send/deliver your report, make sure that you have the details of the person who received the report including the time of acceptance/delivery. You can also ask the person to attach his/her signature;
- (e) When the chairperson of the adjudication panel receives the report, he/she needs to set up a review panel which should consist of people who were not members of the adjudication panel and are not affected by the outcome of the decision;
- (f) The review panel will examine the facts of the case, and will conduct, where necessary, oral proceedings and/or document analysis;
- (g) At the end of the review, the panel should have a written agreement/resolution;
- (h) Apart from it being enforceable, it gives the decision legitimacy, and serves as guidance if a similar problem arises in future;
- (i) The NTA manager should ensure that resolutions are in line with the rules of the NTA;
- (j) The manager should document the resolution taken by the review panel and record whether the aggrieved teacher agreed to the resolution;
- (k) If it is determined that an improper decision has been made, the NTA management team will ensure that the appropriate remedy is undertaken; and
- (l) The complaint should receive a response within seven (7) days of lodging the dispute.

Third step:

- (a) When no resolution through informal means can be arrived at, and when the result of the management evaluation is not to the satisfaction of the teacher, the teacher can file an application to the next level of the NTA;
- (b) This has to occur no more than seven (7) days after the teacher received notification of the contested decision; and

- (c) The same process that was followed in step 2 should be followed.

Fourth step

In cases where no agreement could be reached on a dispute, the matter should be brought to the attention of the Provincial Education Departments (PDEs) and DBE's whose decision will be final.

General remarks;

- (a) Please ensure that the dispute resolution panel members were not part of the adjudication panel that led to a dispute; and
- (b) When selecting these members, ensure that they are comparable to the adjudication panel members in terms of position, experience, etc.
