

1. Criteria for the appointment of Internal Moderators, Chief Markers and Deputy Chief Markers

- 1.1 Applicants for the position of internal moderator and chief marker must have a minimum of 8 years' teaching experience and at least 5 years' experience in teaching the subject concerned at Grade 12 level.
- 1.2 Applicants for the position of deputy chief marker must have at least 5 years' experience as a marker and a minimum of 2 years' experience as a senior marker in the subject for which an application is being made.
- 1.3 In the case of chief markers, experience as a moderator, chief marker or deputy chief marker in previous years is a requirement.
- 1.4 In the case of internal moderators, experience as a moderator or chief marker in previous years is a requirement.
- 1.5 All applicants must also have taught the subject at a school writing the NSC examination for at least two of the following years: 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Preference will be given to teachers currently teaching the Curriculum and Assessment Policy Statements (CAPS) to Grade 12 candidates.

2. Criteria for the appointment of markers

Applicants must have a minimum of two years' experience in teaching the subject concerned at Grade 12 level. They must also have taught the subject for at least two of the following years: 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Preference will be given to teachers currently teaching the CAPS to Grade 12 candidates.

3. General criteria applicable to all applicants

- 3.1 All applicants must be in possession of a recognised three-year post Senior Certificate qualification, which must include the relevant subject on at least second-year level, but preferably third-year level.
- 3.2 Applicants must be in service at an institution that prepares candidates for the NSC examinations.
- 3.3 The following applicants will not be considered for the marking of the NSC examinations:

- 3.3.1 School principals or acting school principals; and
- 3.3.2 applicants for the non-competency test subjects who are 65 years old or will turn 65 at the time of marking.
- 3.4 Applicants who apply to mark History Paper 1 and 2 must have taught all sections of the History curriculum.
- 3.5 The appointments of the marking panels will be reviewed annually to ensure that the marking officials still meet the appointment criteria.
- 3.6 The contract of a marking official who no longer meets the appointment criteria will be terminated.
- 3.7 Marking officials who have been flagged as incompetent at the marking centre or through the re-mark exercise, will not be re-appointed.
- 3.8 All marking officials must provide the chief marker with the suggested answers to the question paper they have been appointed to mark on the first day of marking. The WCED may withdraw the appointment of a marker who turns up at the marking centre without having worked out the suggested answers of the question paper he/she has been appointed to mark. This requirement excludes markers of Paper 3 of languages. However, these markers must familiarise themselves with the topics examined in the relevant question paper.
- 3.9 A person who is on leave during the period leading up to the marking period and inclusive thereof, will have his or her appointment as a moderator, chief marker, deputy chief marker or marker terminated. A person, who, by the end of the year, has been on leave for more than 50 days, will also have his or her appointment terminated. This applies to all types of leave.
- 3.10 A person who has a family member, living with him or her, writing the November 2017 NSC examination does not qualify for appointment as internal moderator, chief marker, deputy chief marker or senior marker in the year in which the family member is writing the examinations. However, such a person may apply for the position of marker in that subject.
- 3.11 The WCED will terminate the appointment of any person who does not perform satisfactorily in the execution of his or her responsibilities during any of the above-mentioned marking periods.
