

5. Candidates must note the following:
- (a) Candidates are bound in all matters relating to the examination to obey the instructions of the invigilator and the chief invigilator.
 - (b) Candidates are expected to respond to the questions in the question paper, on their own, without the assistance of their peers or educators. In cases where assistance is offered by an educator or invigilator, or a learner, it is the responsibility of the candidate to bring this to the attention of the chief invigilator. Failure to report such assistance will result in the candidate being implicated.
 - (c) It is therefore the responsibility of the candidate to report any information or rumour regarding examination irregularities to the invigilator/chief invigilator. Failure to do so will be considered to be collusion for which the candidate will be held accountable.
 - (d) In cases where a candidate is forwarded, via email, SMS, WhatsApp or through any other electronic means, a question paper, or part(s) of a question paper and fails to report such an incident to the invigilator/chief invigilator, he/she will be regarded as being complicit.
 - (e) Once in the examination room, the candidate must ensure the following:
 - (i) No notes or any other material that is not allowed in the examination room is on his/her person. Being found in possession of any notes or material in the examination room is regarded as an act of misconduct.
 - (ii) No cell phones, or any other device is brought into the examination room. Any such device found in their possession, also constitutes an act of misconduct.
 - (f) It is the responsibility of the candidate to check that they receive the paper and/or subject for which they are registered.
 - (g) No examination answer book (or part of an answer book/answer sheet), whether used or unused, may be removed from the examination room. Should this occur, it will be considered an irregularity and the candidate will receive NO credit for the examination.
 - (h) Should a candidate write the wrong subject or wrong language level (in the case of a language paper), this will be considered to be a technical irregularity and will lead to the candidate's results being blocked/cancelled/delayed.
 - (i) Candidates are strongly advised not to use different styles of handwriting in their answer books, as the resulting investigation of this will delay the release of their results.
 - (j) The conduct of the candidate before, during and after the question paper is important. Disruptive and unruly behaviour will not be tolerated and the candidate could be barred from writing the examination.
 - (k) In the event of a candidate being implicated in an examination irregularity, the parent/guardian and candidate must avail himself/herself, as failure to do so will lead to further delays in the results of the candidate being released.
 - (l) Only progressed learners are allowed to follow the multiple examination opportunity (MEO) option. Failure to comply with this rule, will lead to the candidates not being resultated.
6. The key types of irregularities that may occur during the examination are listed on page 4.
7. In the event that a candidate is found to have contravened any of the rules and regulations as specified above, the Department of Basic Education reserves the right to nullify the candidate's results and they could be barred from writing all examinations for a period of one to three years (as stipulated in the Regulations in Government Gazette No. 31337 of 29 August 2008). Criminal prosecution could be imposed should it be found that a learner is involved in the leakage of any examination question paper.
8. Disciplinary action will also be taken against officials who are involved in irregularities at their examination centres.
