Subject: Procedures for the administration of the Music Paper 2 (P2) (Comprehension) October/November 2023 National Senior Certificate examination

1. The Music P2 (Comprehension) examination will be written on 04 December 2023. The question papers will be dispatched in the week of 30 November 2023 and will be accompanied with the music compact disc (CD) containing the different tracks.
2. The music CD will be packaged separately from the question paper inside a padded envelope and then packed inside the brown cardboard boxes containing the black canvas bags.
3. The brown cardboard boxes must be opened immediately on receipt, in the principal's/chief invigilator's office, in a secure area, for verification of the consignment.
4. The session's black canvas bags, containing the question papers, along with the padded envelope, must then be stored immediately in the safe/strongroom.
5. Upon receipt of the music CD, it must be tested prior to the examination of the 04 December 2023. The music subject educator must test the music CD, in the presence of the chief invigilator, on the sound equipment which will be used during the examination. Each track must be tested. If the music CD is faulty, please contact Mrs B Calvert immediately on 021 467 2994.
6. On the day of the examination, the following procedures for the administration of the Music P2 examination must be followed strictly:

- 6.1 The music CD and CD player must be tested again. This test must be done an hour prior to the commencement of the examination. Please ensure that the educator who will be operating the CD player, is familiar with its functions.
- 6.2 The question paper provides clear instructions on how many times the tracks should be played, and no deviation will be permitted. Candidates may not request for tracks to be repeated more times than what is stipulated.
- 6.3 All candidates must remain in the examination room for the duration of the examination, regardless of whether they had completed the examination before the end time.
- 6.4 The examination must be conducted under the supervision of the chief invigilator.
7. Contingency plans must be in place to conduct the examination in the event of scheduled and unscheduled electricity interruptions.
8. In case of any eventuality, the school must implement the appropriate protocols to ensure that all candidates complete the examination on the day.
9. Kindly bring the content of this minute to the attention of the music educator(s) and chief invigilator.
