

1. The candidates did not understand certain questions.
2. Too many aspects of the syllabus had not received sufficient attention at schools.

SECTION A: Question 2 and 13 were generally well answered.

SECTION B: Those sections of the syllabus dealt with in Questions 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 should have received more attention at schools.

SECTION C: This section of the syllabus had not been mastered by most of the candidates.