

Question 1

This was answered very well by the candidates. The average SG candidate did not have any difficulty in answering this question paper.

Question 2

2.2.4 No candidate could answer this question correctly.

2.3 Many candidates could not even give a definition of the two terms.

Question 3

3.2 The calculations were beyond the abilities of SG candidates.

3.2.4 & 3.2.5 Most candidates could not answer these two questions.

3.3 Many candidates still gave the characteristics of wants.

Question 4

4.1 Candidates answers was above average.

4.2.1 Wide interpretation of this question.

4.2.3 Wide interpretation.

4.2.4 Very few candidates could give the definition of capital formation.

4.3 The candidates could answer this question using their own experience.

Question 5

The question should have been more specific.

Question 6

The candidates did rather well in this question.

6.1.3 Many candidates could not give the correct answer to this question.

Question 7

Not many candidates answered this question. They had difficulty interpreting 7.2

Question 8

Many candidates still answer all the options.

Coverage of syllabus:

The question paper dealt with the whole syllabus. Many candidates could not do the calculations because they did not have calculators.