

GENERAL:

1. The results achieved by candidates ranged from satisfactory to poor.
2. Poor question interpretation frequently resulted in poor answers.

QUESTION 1

In general, this question was answered poorly.

QUESTION 2

The section on the pattern envelope was answered well.

2.1.6 (b) (c) (e),

2.2, 2.1.5,

& 2.3.2

The responses to these questions ranged from satisfactory to poor.

QUESTION 3

3.1.3

Candidates were, once again, not able to identify colour harmonies.

3.1.7 (a)

This question on the advantages of mail-order services was answered very poorly.

3.2.2

Candidates did not know the meaning of "additional clothing articles".

3.2.2

Candidates were sometimes confused about the price of an outfit and the choice of a shop.

QUESTION 4

The responses to this question ranged from satisfactory to poor. Many candidates were, once again, not able to identify the construction techniques and different parts of the outfit.

4.2.1

The identifying of the embroidery process was poorly answered.

4.2.3

The answers to the question on pressing embroidery ranged from satisfactory to good.

QUESTION 5

This question was answered satisfactorily, except for 5.1.4, 5.1.6 and 5.4. Many candidates found it difficult to apply theory and therefore these latter questions were answered poorly.

QUESTION 6

In most cases the question on embroidery was answered very well. Questions 6.3.1 and 6.3.2 on knitting techniques were answered poorly.