

- 1 The school has a permanent principal who is leading a unified School Management Team (SMT) effectively.
- 2 All vacancies are filled and/or there are contingency plans for vacant positions.
- 3 A positive school culture is evident as displayed by, amongst other, a secure, clean and functional school precinct (toilets, classrooms and environment are clean).
- 4 All the necessary timetables, year and term planners are in place, adhered to and monitored.
- 5 Staff and learners are present and punctual.
- 6 Functional structures (e.g. curriculum, sport and culture), each with outlined duties and monitoring systems, are in place.
- 7 Required policies and records are in place and adhered to (learner and teacher registers, learner and staff codes of conduct, safety plans, Learning and Teaching Support Material policy, etc.).
- 8 Good relationships (SMT, staff, governing body, parents, etc.) are evident and functioning.
- 9 The school has the ability to deal with poor performance and is implementing improvement/developmental strategies.
- 10 A variety of afterschool activities are in place.

